Report of Add-on Course

Name: Philosophical Heritage of Indian Knowledge System.

Course coordinator: Dr.Maitreyee Sharma

Department of Philosophy Conducted an Add on course from 18.12.23 to 02.02.2024 in blended mode. The topic has been selected for the greater benefit of students. The course comprises Indian wisdom through the ages, it's philosophical background and landmarks. It tried to give a synoptic knowledge of different philosophical schools and their teachings of ancient India. It also includes the process of development of holistic knowledge in ancient Indian Philosophy.

This course aimed to rejuvenate the philosophical heritage and the long journey of wisdom in the minds of students. It is believed that after this course students will be able to make them understand the importance and value of Indian Philosophical Knowledge in present day society. The course was conducted in both offline and online mode. The faculty members of the Department of Philosophy and Sanskrit acted as resource persons.

A written test was conducted after the end of the course. Among 30 students 05 students secured Grade A+, 13 students secured Grade A and 12 students secured Grade B+. Marks for the Grades has been decided In the academic departmental meeting.
