REPORT

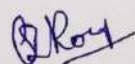

On the occasion of National Sports Day 2023, Pandu College Sports Club organised a Tug of War Competition, showcasing spirited participation from the college students on the 29th of August. This event, held in commemoration of National Sports Day, aimed at fostering a sense of sportsmanship and physical fitness among the students.

The competition comprised both girls' and boys' categories. In the girls' category, three teams participated, and the 'Bhogeswar Phukanani' team emerged victorious in the final match, displaying commendable strength and teamwork. The boys' category witnessed intense competition, with a total of ten teams. Following rigorous rounds, the 'Mukunda Kakati' team secured the coveted first position.

The event commenced with the inauguration conducted by Mr. Dipjyoti Barman, the Coordinator of IQAC Pandu College. In his address, he not only inaugurated the proceedings but also imparted insightful encouragement for active student participation in such events, emphasizing the holistic benefits of sports in personal development. Dr. Sandipan Pathak, Assistant Professor in the Department of History at Pandu College, contributed an academic perspective by elucidating the historical and cultural significance of National Sports Day. This added a thoughtful dimension to the celebration. Mr. Rantumoni Pathak, Assistant Professor in the Department of Commerce, played an important role as the referee, ensuring fair play and adherence to rules throughout the competition. The conclusion of the competition saw the distribution of prizes among the participating students, acknowledging their dedication and skill. This not only recognized their efforts but also served as motivation for continued engagement in sporting activities. In a friendly competition held between the teachers and the students, the students' group effortlessly outshined the teachers. The winners of the competition were presented with the trophy by Mr. Dipjyoti Barman, the Coordinator of IQAC Pandu College who also motivated them to take part in upcoming events.

The Tug of War Competition at Pandu College proved to be a resounding success. The event not only celebrated the joy of sports but also promoted a healthy and competitive spirit among the student. The active participation of students, guidance from faculty members, and collaborative efforts of the members of the organizing committee were integral to the success of this event. The competition gave the students courage and opportunities for future endeavours.
